You need tenant insurance!

- To replace personal belongings if they're stolen or destroyed.
- To cover you if you unintentionally damage another tenant's property eg., a cooking fire causes smoke damage upstairs or an overflowing tub spills into the unit below.
- To cover some of the cost if you have to vacate your unit because it's been damaged by fire or flood and live somewhere else until it's livable again.
- Because your rental agreement actually requires you to have insurance.

With eTIP, you're covered!

- $25,000 contents coverage at replacement cost for stolen or destroyed belongings. There is a $1,000 deductible.
- $1 million liability coverage for damage to another tenant's property.
- $5,000 additional living expenses if you have to vacate and live elsewhere.
